DETAILED ACTION

The finality of the last office action has been vacated and a new office action on the merits appears below.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Regarding claims 10-11, the phrase "so as" renders the claim indefinite because it is unclear whether the limitations following the phrase are part of the claimed invention. See MPEP § 2173.05(d).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) The invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1, 3-5 and 9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Blase (4,369,998). In regards to claim 1 and 9, Blase discloses a bicycle seat (60) comprising a first rigid posterior base section (22,23) defining a relatively wide first support surface for use by the rider; and a nose section (front portion of the seat) extending forwardly and centrally of the posterior base section and defining a relatively narrow width elongated second support surface for use of the rider, the nose section second support surface being supported on said nose section in a manner which enables said support surface to relocate its position (depending on the position of the user) in response and proportionate to the amount of load placed thereon by the rider; the angle between the central axis of the nose section and the vertical plane containing the leading front edge of the first support surface is within a range of 90-125°(its about 104°). In regards to claim 3, wherein the first support surface is substantially flat. In regards to claim 4, wherein the first support surface is slightly concave. In regards to claim 5, wherein the nose section includes a second rigid base section includes means (21) to limit the downward relocation of the selected portion of the support surface.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 6-7 and 10 as best understood are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Blase in view of Weber (5,330,249). Blasé shows the use of all the claimed invention but fails to show the use of a hollow portion of the nose section. Weber teaches the use of a hollow portion (24) of the nose section. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of invention to modify the nose section with a hollow portion as taught by Weber, in order to distribute pressure through the seat.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claim 8 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Claim 11 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1 and 3-10 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
